

The World Climate March and Oxfam Great Britain would like to use your child's story/photograph/audio or video recording to promote the World Climate March taking place September-November 2021.

This material may be used by Oxfam GB to create new content for up to 5 years. It could be used in different formats, for example in case studies, promotional material or education resources, may be used multiple times on different media channels, and may be accessible in different countries around the world. In the case of published online and offline material, it is possible that ongoing, existing use of this content will continue for longer than five years.

You always have a right to access, rectify, erase or restrict the use of your child's data. Please email privacy@oxfam.org.uk to request this. In addition, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the ICO, the UK data protection regulator: <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>.

Where consent is withdrawn, we will withdraw the data from our media channels or provide for appropriate editing/pixilation of the content. Please note that If content has been available online and picked up by third parties – e.g. local newspapers, re-tweets, we cannot control this further use. For details about Oxfam's work, your rights, how to get in touch with us, or about how we use your child's data, please see the privacy page of our website: www.oxfam.org.uk/privacy.
